

Two Rivers Trail West:

Trail #: 08-0024

Trail Status: Operational

Location: Two Rivers Trail West is located in southeast Saskatchewan, south of the village of Veregin along Highway 5.

Description: This section of the Trans Canada Trail links the community of Kamsack with Veregin.

Historical: Russian settlers known as the Doukhobors began immigrating to the eastern portion of what is now Saskatchewan in the late 1800's.

Named after Peter Verigin, a community leader and activist, the village of Veregin was incorporated in 1912. Growth was steady, and the community quickly became an important grain delivery centre for the province.

However, a rift developed between the Doukhobors and the government which resulted in many of the settlers relocating to British Columbia beginning in 1908. As a result, the town suffered.

The community was dealt a significant blow in 2004 when much of the town was destroyed by fire.
